

Both arms are hinged to allow armrest to drop down

Disabled and infirm patients may have difficulty getting into a chair

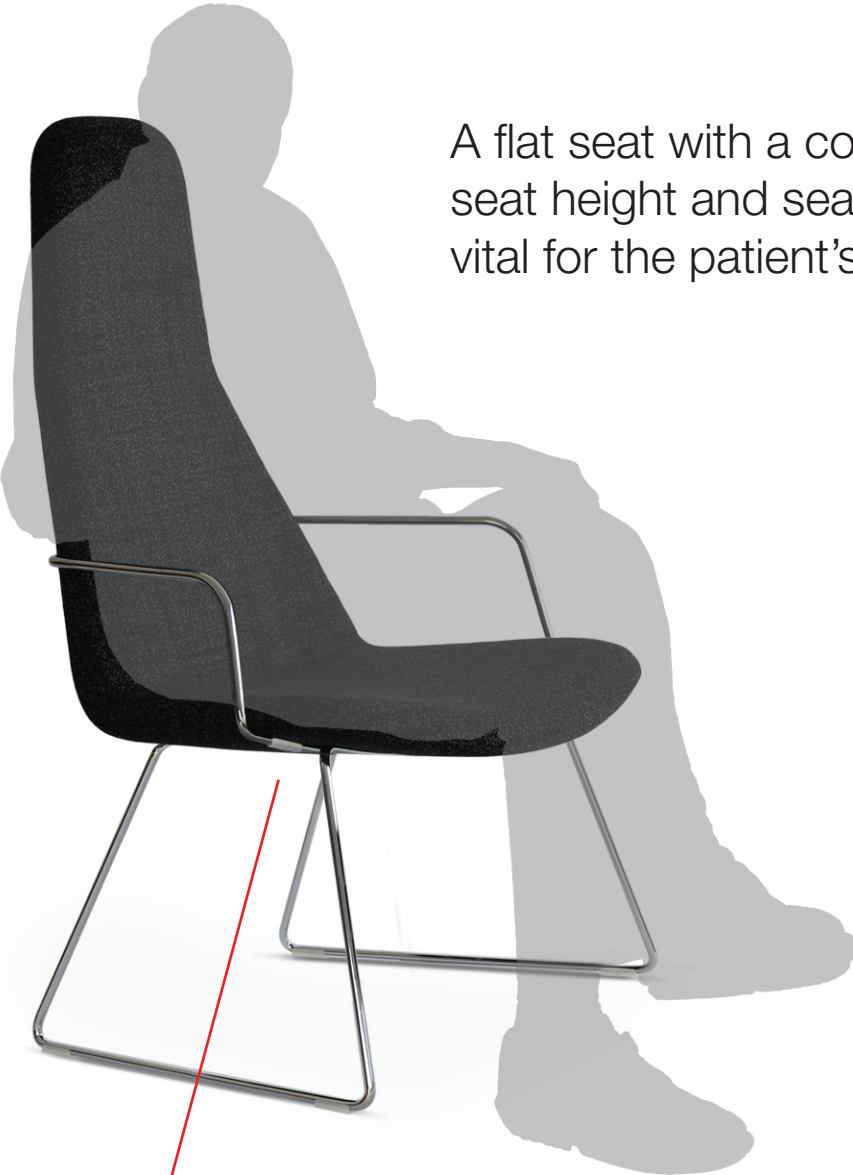

Hooks are incorporated on the back to support serum bag and personal possessions

Chair arm drops to allow access for the patient onto the seat

A flat seat with a comfortable seat height and seat depth is vital for the patient's wellbeing

Chair arm clips and locks back into place to allow patient to comfortably rest arms